Plaintiff Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (“Commission” or “EEOC”) brought this lawsuit under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Title I of the Civil Rights Act of 1991, to correct alleged unlawful employment practices on the basis of race (African American) and to make whole Ms. June Riddick who the Commission alleged was aggrieved by such practices. Plaintiff EEOC alleged that defendant Pacific Bell Directory d/b/a AT&T Advertising & Publishing (named as “AT&T, Inc., dba SBC Yellow Pages” in the Complaint) (“PBD”) unlawfully subjected Ms. Riddick to disparate treatment in the selection for a promotion opportunity because of her race. PBD denied all the EEOC’s allegations, including that Ms. Riddick was subjected to disparate treatment, as well as the claim of damages or injuries.

In the interest of resolving the Lawsuit and as a result of comprehensive settlement negotiations, the Commission and Defendant PBD (hereinafter referred to as “the Parties”) have

1 agreed that this action should be resolved by entry of this Consent Decree. This Consent Decree
 2 shall not constitute an adjudication and/or a finding on the merits of the Lawsuit. This resolution
 3 does not constitute an admission of liability on the part of PBD, which expressly denies any 4 violation of law or wrongdoing. This Consent Decree represents a good faith settlement of 5 contested and disputed claims.

6 This Consent Decree resolves all claims arising out of EEOC Charge No. 37A 2004-
 7 09149 and the complaint filed in the Lawsuit, and constitutes a complete and final resolution of 8 all claims of race discrimination under Title VII that were made or could have been made by the 9 Commission in this lawsuit, including class claims. This Consent Decree does not, however,
 10 resolve any future charges or charges that may be pending with the EEOC other than the charge
 11 and complaint specifically referenced in this paragraph. No waiver, modification or amendment
 12 of any provision of this Consent Decree shall be effective unless made in writing and approved
 13 by all the Parties to this Decree, and any substantive change, modification or amendment of any 14 provision of this Consent Decree shall also require approval by the Court.

15 The Court has reviewed this Consent Decree in light of the pleadings, the record herein,
 16 and now approves this Consent Decree. THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND 17 DECREED:

18 I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 4 alleged emotional distress within fourteen days of the entry of the Proposed Order
- 5 by the Court. Defendant shall provide the Commission with proof of this
- 6 disbursement of the settlement payment c/o Raymond T. Cheung, EEOC, 350 The 9 6. Promotion

10 Defendant PBD shall promote Ms. June Riddick to the first Field Service

11 Collector opening in its Sacramento facility that it fills.

12 7. EEO Policies

13 Defendant PBD shall revise, to the extent it determines necessary, its Equal

14 Employment Opportunity (“EEO”) policies, within sixty (60) days of signing the

16 Title VII; (ii) articulates Defendant’s commitment to racially neutral hiring policy

17 and practice; (iii) provide a clearly articulated process for employees to report

10. Training Logistics.

With respect to the training required by the above paragraph, Defendant agrees to provide a description of each training program to counsel for the Commission no later than twenty (20) days before the training programs are scheduled to be held. If the Commission has not objected to the description of the training program within seven (7) days of being given notice, such non-response shall be deemed an acknowledgment that the Commission does not object to the form, nature and content of the training.

11. Acknowledgment of Training Attendance.

All persons attending mandatory anti-discrimination training pursuant to this Consent Decree shall acknowledge their attendance (through their hard copy or electronic signature) at the training, the date thereof, and their position. PBD shall retain these electronic verifications and provide the EEOC with a copy.

12. Training Reporting

Within thirty (30) days of completion of the training required by this Consent Decree, PBD will send the EEOC verification of its completion of the equal employment hiring and promotion training for its employees.

V. DISMISSAL WITHOUT PREJUDICE, RETENTION OF JURISDICTION, AND EXPIRATION OF CONSENT DECREE

13. The Commission expressly retains the right to petition this Court, prior to the expiration of the Consent Decree as set forth in Paragraph 14 below, for an extension of the Consent Decree because of noncompliance until July 31, 2009, if the Commission determines that PBD has not complied with the terms of this Consent Decree. If the Commission determines that PBD has not complied with the Consent Decree, the Commission will provide written notification of the alleged breach to Defendant and will not petition the Court for an extension of the Consent Decree sooner than thirty (30) days after providing written notification. The thirty-day period following written notice shall be used by the parties for good faith efforts to resolve the issue. If the Commission successfully petitions the Court to extend the Consent Decree and the Court finds PBD to be in substantial violation of the terms of the Decree, the Court may extend this Consent Decree by another six (6) months.

14. Unless this Consent Decree is extended pursuant to Paragraph 13 above, one (1) year after the entry of this Consent Decree, it will expire and have no further force or effect, and this Lawsuit will be deemed to have been dismissed with prejudice without further action by the Parties and without further Court Order.
